Falls City Council Meets

(KLZA)-- The Falls City Council Monday night approved ordinances on second reading concerning the comprehensive development plan, subdivision regulations and zoning regulations.

Approval was given to use streets including blocking of Barada street between 17th and 18th Street on Sunday, November 9th for the Jingle Bell Ride between 1 and 3:30 p-m.

The appointment of Jonah Santo to the library board was approved. A request to hire a full time laborer for the Street Department was deleted from the agenda.
