Jury Trial Set For Accused Arsonist

(KNZA)--A jury trial is scheduled for next year in Brown County District Court for an Atchison County man accused of arson.

39-year-old Johnny Hogue entered a plea of not guilty to the felony charge Monday and the 4-day trial was set to start on February 10th.

He's accused of setting fire to a 1998 Chevy Camaro on March 4th.

He was arrested in the Atchison County community of Potter in June.

Hogue also faces a misdemeanor charge of sexual battery.

Arraignment in that separate case was continued Monday until January 7th.

He remains in the Brown County Jail.
