

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=43693>

Southeast Community College Seeking Input From Falls City Area Residents

(KLZA)-- Southeast Community College is seeking input from community members regarding the future direction of the college.

A community meeting will be held Wednesday from 8:30 a-m until 10:30 a-m at Falls City High School. Southeast Community College is interested in hearing constructive feedback during the forum. The College is committed to working with communities in Southeast Nebraska to help grow the local economy.

Many Signals Communications