Jury Trial Set for Former Jackson Co Fire Chief

(KNZA)--An April 16th jury trial has been set for a former Jackson County fire chief accused of embezzlement.

Jackson County Attorney Shawna Miller says the trial for 45-year-old Soldier resident Ryan White was set Monday during a hearing in Jackson County District Court. The trial is scheduled for two days.

White pleaded “ not guilty” last month to two counts of felony theft and five counts of misdemeanor theft.

He’s accused of stealing around 39-hundred dollars while serving as treasurer of the Soldier Ball Association from August 2012 through May of last year.

White remains free on $15,000 bond.
