

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=48578>

Arraignment Postponed in Brown Co Child Sex Case

(KNZA)--The arraignment for a Horton man facing child sex charges in two counties has been postponed for a second time in Brown County.

The arraignment for 20-year-old Dallas Bond, which had been scheduled for Monday morning, has now been pushed back to July 6th.

Bond is facing five felony counts in Brown County. He's charged in connection with alleged sex offenses involving a child born in 2003. Bond is also accused of stealing several items belonging to the Brown County Sheriff's Department, where he formerly worked as a dispatcher.

Bond is also facing six felony counts in Jackson County involving the same child. He pleaded not guilty in March to the Jackson County charges, and a final pre-trial conference is set for May 11th.

Bond remains in the Jackson County Jail, held on a $750,000 bond in the Brown County case and a $100,000 bond in the Jackson County case.

Many Signals Communications