

Horton Man Sentenced in Child Sex Case

(KNZA)--A Horton man charged in two counties with sex-related crimes involving a child under the age of 14 has been sentenced in Brown County to nearly 7 ½ years in prison.

20-year-old Dallas Bond was sentenced Monday to a total of 91 months in prison on four counts—including kidnapping, sexual exploitation of a child, identity fraud and felony theft.

He pleaded “no contest” to the charges last month which were contained in an amended complaint filed May 20th.

Authorities say Bond took the child, under false pretenses, to a Holton motel room last August where alleged sexual offenses were committed. He was also charged with stealing several items from the Brown County Sheriff’s Department where he previously worked as a dispatcher.

Bond faces six felony counts in Jackson County—including rape. He is scheduled to enter a plea Friday in Jackson County District Court.
