Falls City Woman Arraigned in District Court

(KLZA)-- A Falls City woman has pleaded "not guilty" to charges in two cases.

In the first case, 35-year-old April Feighner is charged with being an accessory to a felony. A jury trial was scheduled for October 21st. Bond was continued in the case.

In the second case, Feighner is charged with a felony count of theft by receiving stolen property involving a 4-wheeler stolen in April.

An October 21st jury trial was set for Feighner in both cases.

She was arraigned in both cases this past week in Richardson County District Court.
