Forced Entry Lands One in Jail

An Atchison man goes to jail after allegedly forcing his way inside an Atchison home while the residents were inside.

Police Chief Mike Wilson tells MSC News 19-year-old Jarvis Grace was arrested in connection with the crime on Wednesday.

Wilson says the forced entry happened at 5:30 a.m. Sunday morning in the 100 block of Atchison Street.

“Apparently it was random,” Wilson said. “There was a husband and wife inside the residence. They heard the noise of entry being made through a damaged door and alerted police to the area.”

Jarvis now faces charges of aggravated burglary and theft.

Following his apprehension Wednesday, he was booked into the Atchison County Jail.
