

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=57926>

Plea Deal in Jackson Co Attempted Murder Case

(KNZA)--A Topeka man charged in a Jackson County road rage case dating back to 2014 has entered into a plea agreement.

Jackson County Attorney Shawna Miller says 52-year-old Cory Huff pleaded “no contest” this week in Jackson County District Court to two counts of criminal discharge of a firearm at an occupied vehicle. In exchange for the plea, four counts of attempted second-degree murder and one count of reckless driving were dismissed.

Sentencing was set for July 15th.

Huff had been scheduled for a 4-day jury trial beginning next Tuesday.

He was arrested the evening of December 31st, 2014 after motorists along U.S. 75 Highway in southern Jackson County reported a man firing a pistol. No injuries were reported in the incident, which Miller called a random act of road rage.

Many Signals Communications