Two Injured in Nemaha Co Motorcycle Crash

(KMZA)-- A motorcycle crash early Sunday afternoon in Nemaha County left two Parkville, Missouri residents injured.

The Kansas Highway Patrol says it happened on U.S. 36 Highway just east of N Road shortly before 1:00.

The Patrol says 55-year-old Michael McCoy was eastbound when the rear tire went flat on his Harley Davidson motorcycle, causing him to lose control and put the vehicle on its right side.

Michael McCoy and a passenger on his motorcycle, 52-year-old Martha McCoy, were transported to the Nemaha Valley Community Hospital in Seneca for the treatment of injuries.
