

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=58693>

Woman Pleads Guilty For Traffic Death

(MSC News)--A St. Joseph woman accused of striking and killing a pedestrian on I-229 in April has pleaded guilty to a charge of involuntary manslaughter.

The St. Joseph News Press reports 25-year-old Jacey Grom entered the plea Thursday in a Buchanan County courtroom.

Prosecutors says she was driving under the influence and at 110 miles an hour when she struck 24-year-old Corbin Watts.

Police say her blood alcohol level still tested at .134 percent several hours after the accident.

Sentencing was set for August 17th.

Grom remains free on bond.

Many Signals Communications