

Teens Suffer Minor Injuries in Falls City Wreck

(KLZA)-- A two-vehicle wreck in Falls City Saturday evening left two teens with minor injuries.

According to the Falls City Police Department, 17-year-old Kyle Leafy of Falls City was southbound on Harlan Street and pulled into a driveway at 601 Harlan. When Leafy pulled back out onto Harlan Street, which is U.S. Highway 73, his car was struck by a car driven by 16-year old Shane Campbell of Falls City.

A passenger in each vehicle suffered what were described as visible but non-disabling injuries. 19-year-old Nathan Liberty of Tecumseh, who was a passenger in the Leafy car, was taken to Community Medical Center to be checked out. 15-year-old Halen Farmer of Falls City, who was a passenger in the Campbell car, did not seek medical attention.

There were four occupants in the Leafy vehicle and three in the Campbell car. Leafy was issued a citation by the investigating officer. Neither alcohol nor drugs were suspected to have been a factor in the wreck.
