

Minor Injuries In Two NW Missouri Wrecks

(KLZA)-- Two wrecks in Northwest Missouri resulted in minor injuries on Monday morning.

According to the Missouri Highway Patrol, 35-year-old Kristi Hullman of Falls City was westbound on Highway 159, in Holt County, approximately four miles east of Fortescue when she crossed the roadway and went off the south side of the road striking several small tree saplings.

Hullman was transported to Community Medical Center in Falls City by private vehicle. She was wearing a safety device at the time of the wreck.

At approximately 10:20 Monday morning 75-year old James Peterson of Springfield, Nebraska was driving south on I-29 in Atchison, County about a mile south of Rock Port when he went off the east side of the road.

Peterson's SUV went into the median, struck a gravel crossover and went airborne and overturned after impact. The vehicle came to rest on the passenger side.

The Atchison – Holt Ambulance Squad transported Peterson to the Fairfax Hospital for treatment of minor injuries. Peterson was wearing a safety device at the time of the crash.

Many Signals Communications