

Police: DUI, Stabbing, Sends Woman To Jail

(KAIR)--An Atchison woman goes to jail—arrested twice in the same day for separate incidents including in connection with an alleged stabbing of a family member.

“It was at 3:45 on Saturday afternoon that officers responded to the area of the 1500 block of South 6th to investigate a report of a reckless driver,” said Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson. “They located a vehicle in a ditch in Jackson Park and subsequently arrested 22-year-old Sarah Federinko.” He said in that case, she faces charges of driving under the influence and reckless driving.

But charges didn't end there for Federinko.

Wilson said it was around 7:00 Saturday night when officers were called to a disturbance in the 1500 block of South 8th.

“They found a 31-year-old male had been stabbed with a kitchen knife by a family member,” Wilson said. “Federinko was then taken into custody at the scene in that case. The victim was treated at the scene by EMTs, but was not transported to the hospital.”

In that case, she faces aggravated battery and criminal damage to property charges.

She was booked into the Atchison County Jail where she's held without bond.
