

California Murder Suspects Arrested in St. Joseph
(KNZA)--Two suspects wanted in connection with a California murder investigation have been arrested in St. Joseph.

KQ2-TV reports 26-year-old Coty Sutton and 22-year-old Amber Anderson have been charged in Buchanan County with felonies for being out of state fugitives.

According to court documents, Sutton is wanted in Modesto, California for homicide and robbery. Anderson is wanted for accessory to murder.

The two are wanted in connection with the November 26th stabbing death of a 56-year-old Modesto man.

Modesto police say Sutton and Anderson fled to Missouri following the homicide.

The pair were taken into custody Sunday in St. Joseph and are being held in the Buchanan County Jail without bond.

Sutton and Anderson are to appear in a Buchanan County courtroom Friday.
