

California Murder Suspects Waive Extradition

(KNZA)--Two people arrested in St. Joseph in connection with a California homicide investigation have waived extradition.

That came during an appearance in a Buchanan County courtroom Friday for 26-year-old Coty Sutton and 22-year-old Amber Anderson.

Both are expected to be returned to California in ten days.

The pair was arrested Sunday in St. Joseph on fugitive warrants.

Sutton is wanted in Modesto, California for murder and robbery. Anderson is wanted for being an accessory to murder.

The two are charged in connection with the November 26th stabbing death of a 56-year-old Modesto man.

Modesto police say Sutton and Anderson fled to Missouri following the homicide.
