

Johnson-Brock School Board Approves Personnel Moves

(KLZA)-- The Johnson-Brock School Board has approved extending the contract of K-12 Principal Lucas Dalinghaus for the 2018-19 school year with the salary to be negotiated.

The board voted to regretfully accept the resignation of science teacher Jacob Luenberger at the end of the school year and Sylvia Smith who has taught at Johnson-Brock for more than 25 years.

Contracts were approved for the 2017-18s school year for Dawn Metschke and Holly Mosel as Science Teachers.

A contract was approved with Tim Newman as the Drivers Education instructor at a rate of $150 per student. The tuition rate to take Drivers-Ed was approved for 2017 at $250 per student.

Many Signals Communications