Damaging Neighbor's Truck Sends One To Jail

(KAIR)--An Atchison man goes to jail after allegedly damaging his neighbor's truck.

“Shortly after 8 am on Thursday morning, officers responded to a disturbance called in the 700 block of south 5th,” said Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson. “A dispute occurred between two neighbors and one of them reported criminal damage to a 1999 Chevrolet truck that included dents and scratches that other neighbor is now accused of causing with a wooden post and large bucket.”

Arrested is 62-year-old Rogelio Lopez formally charged with criminal damage to property and pedestrian under the influence.

Lopez was booked into the Atchison County Jail where he was released on a $1,500 bond.
