(KAIR)--Possession of methamphetamine sends one Atchison man to jail.

“It was 7:30 pm on Thursday evening when we had an officer stop a vehicle in the area of K-7 and Country Club Road,” said Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson. “The officer knew that the driver, James Smith, had outstanding district court warrants. When he taken into custody, he was found to be in possession of methamphetamine and drug paraphernalia.”

That's Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson. Smith was booked into the Atchison County Jail where he remains held without bond.
