

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=62045>

Crop Duster Strikes Power Line

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb. (AP) - Authorities say a crop-dusting plane landed in an open field after striking a power line in southeast Nebraska.

The Otoe County Sheriff's Office says the pilot found a spot to land southwest of Nebraska City near where the line was hit Thursday night. A nearby resident took the pilot to a hospital.

The pilot's name and other information about the accident have not been released.

Associated Press