

Northwest Announces Free Summer Movie Series

Northwest Missouri State University's Office of Student Involvement and the Student Activities Council has announced its schedule for the 2017 Summer Movie Series.

Seven movies comprise this year's series, which is free and open to the public. The movies include John Hughes' 1980s classics "The Breakfast Club," "Pretty in Pink" and "Ferris Bueller's Day Off" as well as the critically acclaimed "La La Land." For younger audiences, the series includes Disney's "Moana" and this year's live-action remake of "Beauty and the Beast."

Movies are shown each Tuesday night, May 16 through June 27. All show times are 7 p.m. at the Ron Houston Center for the Performing Arts.

Dates, movies and film ratings appear below. For more information, contact Northwest's Office of Student Involvement at 660.562.1226 or osi@nwmissouri.edu.

- May 16: "Moana" (PG)
- May 23: "The Breakfast Club" (R)
- May 30: "La La Land" (PG-13)
- June 6: "Pretty in Pink" (PG-13)
- June 13: "Fantastic Beasts and Where to Find Them" (PG-13)
- June 20: "Ferris Bueller's Day Off" (PG-13)
- June 27: "Beauty and the Beast" (PG)