

Auburn Resident Elected to PBL National Officer Team

(KLZA)--Scott Riley was elected to the Future Business Leaders of America –Phi Beta Lambda National Officer Team as the Mountain Plains Regional Vice President.

Riley is from Auburn, and is pursuing a Business Administration-Management major with a minor in Computer Management Information Systems.

Riley is one of five regional vice presidents on the National Officer Team. He will represent Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska, South Dakota, North Dakota, Colorado, Wyoming, and New Mexico.

For the 2017-2018 school year, Riley will be the President of Nebraska PBL after he campaigned for the position during the 2016-2017 State Leadership Conference in Kearney. Recently, Riley also competed at the National Leadership Conference in Anaheim, California in June.

Many Signals Communications