

Illegal Video Earns Plea

(KAIR)--A guilty plea is entered by a Leavenworth man accused of video recording under a woman's skirt while the two were inside a Leavenworth store.

The Leavenworth Times* reports 55-year-old Thomas Campbell entered the plea Wednesday in Leavenworth County District Court to a felony count of breach of privacy.

He was arrested August 20 after store personnel at Leavenworth's Wal-Mart saw Campbell committing the offense, and notified police.

It's reported that Campbell admitted to police that he recorded a two to three second video of the woman.

Sentencing for Campbell is set for November 1.
