

Kentucky Woman Dies in I-29 Wreck

(KLZA)-- A one-car wreck on Interstate 29 in Atchison County, Missouri, Friday morning claimed the life of a Kentucky woman.

The Missouri Highway Patrol says 34-year-old Holly Hunnicutt of Madisonville died from injuries received in the wreck about 7 miles north of Craig.

The Patrol says Hunnicutt was the passenger in a northbound car driven by 28-year-old Aaron Crawford of Bellevue, Nebraska which traveled off the east side of the roadway, struck embankment, became airborne and struck another embankment.

Crawford was transported by ambulance to Mosaic Life Care in St. Joseph, Missouri with what were described as serious injuries.

According to the report, Hunnicutt was not wearing a safety device. It is unclear if Crawford was wearing a safety device.

The Atchison County Sheriff's Department, Holt County Sheriff's Department, Atchison County First Responders and Holt County First Responders all responded to the scene of the wreck.

Many Signals Communications