

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=63345>

Marysville Banker Appointed to State Board

(KMZA)--A Marysville banker has been appointed to the State Banking Board.

Governor Sam Brownback recently appointed Leonard Wolfe to a three-year term on the Board.

Wolfe has been president and chairman of the board at United Bank and Trust, in Marysville, since 2004.

The State Banking Board acts in an advisory capacity in the administration of state banking laws and approves rules and regulations proposed by the state bank commissioner.

The governor appoints nine members to the board, six of whom are bankers and three who represent the general public.

Many Signals Communications