

Complaint call leads to drug arrests

(KAIR)--Alleged drug possession sends two Atchison residents to jail.

Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson tells MSC News the arrests came following the response of officers to a residence on the south side of Atchison. "It was just before

11 a.m. on Tuesday when officers responded to a residence in the 500 block of Q street to investigate a complaint. The officers determined that two residents were in possession of methamphetamine, marijuana, and drug paraphernalia."

Taken into custody were 30-year-old David Ham III and 25-year-old Samantha Foster.

Ham faces charges of possession of methamphetamine, marijuana, and drug paraphernalia.

Foster is facing charges of possession of marijuana and drug paraphernalia.

Both were booked into the Atchison County Jail.
