

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=64166>

Hiawatha man accused of failing to register as sex offender

(KNZA)--A Hiawatha man is accused of failing to register as a sex offender.

24-year-old Daniel Auckland was arrested Thursday by the Brown County Sheriff's Department.

He appeared Friday in a Brown County courtroom on the felony charge. A preliminary hearing was set for February 14th.

Information was not immediately available on the original sex offense conviction.

He had been arrested Wednesday by the Hiawatha Police Department for a probation violation. A hearing in that case is now set for March 6th.

Auckland was released Friday on his own recognizance.

Many Signals Communications