

Leavenworth murder trial postponed

(KNZA)--The trial for a woman accused of murdering her estranged husband in Leavenworth has been pushed back.

51-year-old Barbara Frantz, of Kansas City, Kansas, had been scheduled to go on trial March 19th. However, The Leavenworth Times reports a judge granted a request by her attorney during a hearing Friday for a continuance.

The trial was rescheduled to begin June 25th. Two weeks are to be set aside for the trial.

Frantz is charged in Leavenworth County District Court with first-degree murder.

She is accused of shooting her estranged husband, Gary, Jan. 27, 2017, in a Leavenworth parking lot.

Frantz remains in the Leavenworth County Jail.
