

Sabetha woman injured in wreck

(KMZA)--A Sabetha woman was injured Sunday morning in a two-vehicle wreck on a Nemaha County road.

The Nemaha County Sheriff's Department says 51-year-old John Suhr, of Sabetha, was eastbound on 176th Road when his pickup truck traveled through the intersection of V Road without yielding to a northbound SUV driven by 32-year-old Zachary Engelken, of Seneca. The vehicles collided.

A passenger in the pickup, 48-year-old Lisa Suhr, was transported to a local hospital by ambulance.

The wreck was reported shortly before 9:30 Sunday morning.
