Weekend wreck claims one life

(KMZA)--A single vehicle Saturday morning Marshall County, Kansas crash claimed the life of a Nebraska man.

The Kansas Highway Patrol report states 25-year-old Tyler Vanwinkle, of Steinauer, was westbound on Cherokee Road, at U.S. Highway 77, 8 miles north of Marysville, when his pickup truck drifted off the south edge of the roadway.

The truck struck a guardrail, causing the vehicle to overturn as it left the roadway. It landed upside down on the west edge of a creek.

The Patrol says Vanwinkle was buckled up when the wreck happened shortly before 7:00.
