

Things To Do When Money Is Short

Here are some things to think about when money is short.

- *Think about things you have been spending money on that you can do without—movies, magazines, music, extra snacks, sodas, etc.
- *Think about ways to earn money—babysitting, pet sitting, mowing lawns, delivering papers, etc.
- *Think about ways to stretch the money your family does have—sew or mend clothing, gardening, babysit for younger brothers/sisters, prepare meals, etc.
- *Turn off the lights, television, and other small appliances.
- *Take shorter showers to cut down on the hot water used.
- *Hang your clothes up after wearing so they will not need to be washed and dries as often and will last longer.
- *Do not stand with the refrigerator door open while deciding what to eat.
- *Drink water, milk, and juices, which are healthier and can be less expensive than soda.
- *Turn off the water while brushing your teeth, turn on (small stream) for rinsing.
- *Use less shampoo—only enough to clean the hair (too much lather is wasteful).
- *Buy generic brands of personal care products.
- *Don't be wasteful with food.
- *Give gifts to friends and family of your time and energy rather than money.
- *Think about the things you do that make other people in your family angry. Find ways to avoid doing those things.
- *Do extra chores; help out without being asked.
- *Clean up after yourself.
- *Avoid picking fights.

Spend time caring for younger brothers/sisters.

Share your possessions and school supplies with other family members.

Be generous with your time.

Keep a good sense of humor.

Be enthusiastic about trying new ideas.

If a task needs to be done and you can do it, do it; it will be appreciated.

Treat your family with kindness. Be courteous using “please and thank you” generously.

Accept decisions of others in a positive manner.

Remember, no matter what your age, there are things you can do to help at home during tough times!
