Homeless man charged in St. Joseph stabbing

(KAIR)--Buchanan County prosecutors have charged a homeless man in a stabbing that sent one person to the hospital.

KQ2-TV reports that Tommy Pahmahmie is charged with first degree assault.

Court documents show Pahmahmie stabbed another man in the chest and shoulder with a pocket knife.

It happened Wednesday on the 700 block of S. 7th Street in St. Joseph.

Investigators say the stabbing stemmed from an argument.
