

Two men sentenced in local child solicitation cases

(KNZA)--Two St. Joseph, Missouri men convicted in separate Brown County cases of the electronic solicitation of a child between 14 and 16 have learned their fate.

39-year-old Daniel Cook was sentenced Monday in Brown County District Court to 94 months in prison and 70-year-old William Buehler was sentenced to 32 months in prison.

Cook was given credit for 127 days served in jail and Buehler for 321 days.

Both men will have to register as sex offenders.

Buehler pleaded no contest in March to the felony charge and Cook pleaded no contest in April.

Both men were arrested following an investigation by undercover officers with the Hiawatha Police Department.

Buehler was arrested in July of last year and Cook on New Year's Day of this year.
