

Falls City Hospital Honored

(KLZA)-- Community Medical Center in Falls City will soon release the hospitals 2017 Annual Report to the public.

During the annual public meeting to reveal information in the report on May 3, hospital CEO Ryan Larsen noted the Critical Care Access Hospital has received several awards including the Hurst Gold Standard of Nursing Award.

The award takes into account nurse communication, responsiveness, pain management, medication communication, care transition and discharge information.

For the second consecutive year, CMC was named a top 100 Critical Care Access Hospital. Larsen informed those gathered, including the Board of Directors of even better news, noting he had just recently been informed, CMC was rated as one of the top 20 Critical Care Access Hospitals in the country.

Larsen says while awards are nice, nothing is more important than the health of CMC patients.
