

Pawnee City school board meets

(KLZA)--The Pawnee City School Board voted unanimously to renew a contract with Providence Working Canines, Inc. to conduct four, unannounced sniffer dog sweeps of the school during the 2018-19 school year when they met May 14th.

In other action, the Board voted to accept with regret the resignations of teachers Allison Colvin and Tyler Colvin, effective at the end of the current school year. They have accepted jobs in Columbus.

Board members also approved hiring Cynthia Burki, Jessica Jacobsen and Angela Sholty as full-time certified teachers starting with the 2018-19 school year.

The review of the “Superintendent Evaluation Instrument” for the 2018-19 school year was referred to the Negotiations Committee.

Many Signals Communications