

Democratic candidates to meet in Atchison

(KAIR)--A chance to meet the Democratic candidates seeking election to both local and statewide offices.

That's the reason behind Friday's Meet the Candidates Night, presented by the Atchison County Democrats.

According to a release from Atchison County Democratic Party Chair Karen Bell, the event is planned for 6:30 Friday evening at the Atchison Elks Lodge, located at 609 Kansas Avenue.

Confirmed to attend are gubernatorial candidates Laura Kelly and Josh Svaty, along with Chris Morrow, who is running as Lt. Governor as part of Carl Brewer's gubernatorial campaign.

Secretary of State candidate Brian McClendon will also be in attendance, as well as Marci Francisco, seeking the State Treasurer's Office, and Charlie Perdue, who is making a bid for the 1st District Atchison County Commission position.

According to Bell, each candidate will speak during Friday evening's event, and then meet the voters.

All members of the public are invited to attend.
