

One dead, one in custody, following shooting

(KAIR)--One person is dead, one is wounded, and one is in custody, following a Monday evening shooting in Saint Joseph, Missouri.

KQ2-TV identifies the victim as 29-year-old Mack Jenkins.

Injured in the shooting was a 23-year-old man who was transported for hospital treatment.

The TV station reports that on Tuesday, one person was in custody in connection with the shooting, but no details about the suspect have been made public.

Police say the investigation is continuing.

The shooting happened just north of downtown Saint Joseph around 6:30 Monday evening, and is believed to have followed an argument in the area of 10th and Henry Streets.

Investigators say shots were fired into a vehicle.

Many Signals Communications