

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=65445>

Monday fire destroys Valley Falls home

(MSC News)--An early Monday morning fire in Valley Falls leaves a trailer home destroyed.

KSNT is reporting that the fire began shortly after midnight at 204 Walnut Street.

The residents were able to escape unharmed, but their home is considered a total loss.

No injuries are reported.

The TV station reports that the investigation indicates the fire was caused by the improper disposal of smoking materials at an outside area near the trailer.

The Red Cross is assisting the family.

Many Signals Communications