

Rape, child sex charges, hold Seneca man

(KMZA)--A Seneca man is accused of rape, along with other child-related sex crimes.

According to a news release from Nemaha County Attorney Brad Lippert, 21-year-old Brandon Ogden is charged with rape, aggravated indecent liberties with a child, and aggravated sodomy.

According to the release, the criminal complaint alleges that Ogden, on August 26, “engaged in sexual intercourse, lewd fondling or touching, and sodomy with a child under 14 years of age.”

He was arrested the same day following a joint investigation by the Seneca Police Department and the Nemaha County Sheriff’s Office.

Ogden remains in custody in the Nemaha County Jail, held on a $1 million bond.

According to the release, if convicted, Ogden could be sentenced under Jessica’s Law for all three offenses, which would result in a life sentence without the possibility of parole for 25 years.
