

Falls City man appears in court on multiple charges

(KLZA)--A Falls City man facing 15 charges including several felonies is scheduled to appear again in Richardson County Court on September 19.

43-year-old Travis Kirkendall appeared in Court Monday on charges in four different cases.

The felony charges stem from July 20th incidents involving a burglary at the Harmon's O.K. Tire Warehouse in Falls City along with incidents on August 12 when Kirkendall was arrested for theft, receiving stolen property and operating a motor vehicle to avoid arrest.

A Falls City Police Department investigation revealed the van Kirkendall was allegedly driving had been stolen in Bellevue, Nebraska.

Prior to being arrested on August 12, Kirkendall was free on bond following his arrest in July. He is currently in the Richardson County Law Enforcement Center, being held on a $5-thousand cash bond.

Kirkendall is also facing several charges of driving under suspension, criminal mischief, willful reckless driving, various traffic violations, no valid registration as well as resisting arrest.

Kirkendall is being represented by the Richardson County Public Defenders Office.
