

Additional details released on Brown Co wreck

(KNZA)--Additional details have been released on a single-vehicle wreck Saturday evening on the southern edge of Hiawatha that sent two Hiawatha residents to the hospital.

Hiawatha Police Chief John Defore says 38-year-old Adam Kloss was southbound on Linden Road when he lost control of his car and struck a bridge pillar at the U.S. 36 overpass.

Kloss, who was trapped in the vehicle, had to be extricated.

Kloss and a passenger, 26-year-old Ashley Rhyne, were both transported by ambulance to the Hiawatha Community Hospital.

Kloss was later transported by helicopter to Topeka's Stormont-Vail Hospital and then later flown to the University of Kansas Hospital in Kansas City with disabling injuries.

Rhyne was transferred by ambulance to Stormont-Vail.

Defore says the wreck still remains under investigation.
