Home invasion suspects on the run

(KAIR)--An Atchison home invasion leaves authorities searching for two suspects.

Atchison County Sheriff Jack Laurie, in a news release, says it happened around 9:00 Wednesday night at a residence located at 7232 Elm Drive.

According to Laurie, two men entered the home, armed with a pistol and a knife, and demanded the victim's safe.

With the small safe in their possession, Laurie says the two fled, and have not yet been located.

Although an exact value isn't known, Laurie says the cash in the safe is believed to be more than $500.

No one was hurt during the incident.
