

Financial crime holds Atchison woman

(KAIR)--A financial crimes investigation, launched in August, ends with the arrest of an Atchison woman.

Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson told MSC News Cristi Thompson was arrested August 28 following the near-week long investigation. "On August the 22, we had a case reported to us that initiated a financial crime investigation. What was determined was we had a 41-year-old female that had reported that in early August, a financial card was taken from her residence in the 400 block of Atchison Street, and we did make an arrest of a person now charged."

According to Wilson, the 39-year-old Thompson was acquainted with the victim.

Thompson is accused of using the financial card at an Atchison ATM where she allegedly withdrew $500.

Facing charges of theft and criminal use of a financial card, Thompson was booked into the Atchison County Jail following her arrest.

At last check, Thompson remained in custody, held on a bond of $10,000.
