

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=65622>

Governor to hold town hall in Pawnee City

(KLZA)--Nebraska Governor Pete Ricketts will hold a town hall meeting in Pawnee City Thursday morning.

Joining the Republican governor will be Nebraska Farm Bureau President Steve Nelson.

The town hall will be held from 9:30 to 10:30 in the Union Bank basement located at 514 G Street.

Ricketts and Nelson will make remarks before taking questions.

The public is invited to attend.

Taylor Gage, who serves as the governor's director of strategic communications, says Ricketts looks forward to hearing the thoughts of area residents on how they can move the state forward together.

Many Signals Communications