

Falls City man accused of no show for court

(KLZA)--Arrest warrants have been issued for a Falls City man who failed to appear in Richardson County District Court Tuesday for arraignment in two separate cases.

43-year-old Travis Kirkendall was scheduled to be arraigned on felony charges of burglary and resisting arrest along with a charge of criminal trespassing in connection with incidents July 30th, that included the alleged burglary of Harmon's O.K. Tire Warehouse in Falls City.

In the second case, Kirkendall is facing felony charges of theft by receiving stolen property-- a van stolen from Bellevue, Nebraska, August 12--operating a motor vehicle to avoid arrest and several misdemeanor charges.

It is alleged that Kirkendall drove the van through Dallas Jones Park in Falls City and at a high rate of speed through residential areas of Falls City and not stopping for STOP signs.

In all, Kirkendall is presently facing 15 charges including several felonies.

Kirkendall was released on a $3,500 bond October 2nd.
