

12 area girls vying for Hiawatha Halloween queen

(KNZA)--Twelve area girls are competing to be crowned as the 104th annual Hiawatha Halloween Frolic queen.

The competition consists of an essay, talent and judges interview, which will take place Sunday afternoon, October 28 beginning at 2:00 at the Fisher Center in Hiawatha.

The crowning ceremony will be held Wednesday evening, October 31 at 6:00 on Oregon Street in front of the Brown County Courthouse, just prior to the evening's grand parade.

Longtime Hiawatha educators, Lucille and B.H. Pennel, were selected as this year's grand marshal's.

This year's Halloween queen contestants include:

Miss Axtell—Abby Yunghans

Miss Bern—Aubriana Gugelman

Miss Everest—Josie Santos

Miss Fairview—Hunter Lowdermilk

Miss Hiawatha---Robin Madere

Miss rural Hiawatha—Norea Menold

Miss Holton—Sydney Snyder

Miss Reserve—Bella Eppens

Miss Sabetha—Shayna Strahm

Miss Seneca—Madeline Rogers

Miss Topeka—Isobel Langham

Miss Troy—Chantel Duncan.