

College funds awarded to Pawnee City student

Lincoln, Neb. – First National Bank of Omaha and Nebraska State Treasurer Don Stenberg have announced the 10 winners of the NEST 529 Back-to-School Photo Drawing.

The contest—which took place from August 7 to September 30—invited families to capture and submit favorite back-to-school photos of their children 8 years old and younger.

Each randomly selected winner received a $2,000 contribution to a NEST 529 College Savings account.

The Back-to-School Photo Drawing winners include: Kathleen Johnson, Pawnee City, Nebraska. Pictured are Rhett Johnson, Abigail Johnson and Lane Johnson and the picture is titled “Cousins Day.” NEST 529 is a tax-advantaged 529 college savings plan and provides four plans to help make saving for college simple and affordable.

Many Signals Communications