

Thousands lost in Atchison burglary

(KAIR)--Atchison Police are continuing to investigate an Atchison burglary that resulted in a loss valued at several thousand dollars, with assistance from the public sought to help solve the crime.

Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson told MSC News it occurred at a shed, located outside a residence, in the 900 block of Division Street.

Investigators believe the crime occurred sometime between December 6 and 7.

Taken from the shed were numerous items, including an air compressor, hand tools, camping gear, and an air mattress.

The total value of the missing items is estimated at $3,000.

Wilson said police are interested in identifying a blue truck spotted in the area of the shed around 5:30 on the evening of December 6 or 7.

Anyone with information about the ongoing investigation is urged to contact the Atchison Police Department.

Many Signals Communications