

Boldridge trial set for April

(KAIR)--Entering a plea of not guilty during his Monday arraignment in Atchison County District Court, an Atchison man accused of attempting to shoot an Atchison Police Officer will face a jury in April.

44-year-old Bryan Boldridge is charged with 2nd degree attempted murder.

According to the Atchison County Attorney's Office, a jury trial for Boldridge is set to begin on the morning of April 9 in Atchison County District Court.

According to the Kansas Bureau of Investigation, an officer was called October 31, 2018 to a residence at North 4th and L Streets to assist a utility company with a theft of service issue.

The investigation alleges that during the late morning response, Boldridge suffered injuries when the officer returned fire after Boldridge began shooting.

The officer was not hurt.

Boldridge remains in custody at the Atchison County Jail, held on a bond of $150,000.

Many Signals Communications