

Holton city commissioner resigns

(KNZA)--A Holton city commissioner is stepping down.

The Commission during their regular meeting this week accepted the resignation of Twila White, effective April 30.

The Holton Recorder* reports White is resigning because she will be moving out of Jackson County.

White holds position 5 on the commission, which is an at-large position.

She was first elected to the commission in 2014 and re-elected in 2017.

The commission has agreed to seek candidates to fill White's term, which expires at the end of 2020.

Resumes with a letter of interest will be accepted through March 29 and can be left at the Holton City Hall.

The commission will review the resumes and interest letters at their April 1 meeting.
